

Geography

Habitats, jungle, ocean, woodland, microhabitats
Map skills
Continents and Oceans
Man made and physical features

D & T

Design suitable carrier
containers for an animal Evaluating products for different uses.

PE

Invasion games - ball skills, marking and defending.
Basketball
Tennis

Music

Body percussion
Pitch, rhythm and pulse

Maths

Position and movement

Right angles, half and quarter turns, clockwise and anti clockwise

Reading scales

- In steps of 1,2,5 and 10
- Where not all numbers are on the scale

SATS revision

All 4 operations, mental and written calculation strategies.
Time, money
Problem Solving

Capacity, volume, and temperature

Reading scales
Choosing the correct unit of measurement
Data handling
Problem solving

Year 2 Summer Term Life on Earth

English

The Owl Who Was Afraid of the Dark Story writing, letters, character descriptions, kennings

Would an elephant enjoy the beach?
Non chronological reports
Rumble in the jungle - poetry

Grammar - punctuation
Handwriting - full joining

Proof reading and editing
Spelling -

History

Significant people - Charles Darwin, David Attenborough,

Changes in our lifetime -
climate change

Art

Colour mixing

ICT

Algorithms and bug fixing. Coding.
Internet safety

Science

Animals, including humans

Animal babies and adults basic needs of animals, and humans.
describe the importance for humans of exercise, eating the right amounts of different types of food, and hygiene.

Living Things

differences between things that are living, dead, and things that have never been alive
□ Habitats and suitability for survival
Food chains.
Life cycles

RE

Why are some stories special?
Creation stories (Christian, Maori)
Stories about environment (Islam, Buddhism)
Why are some places special? Church,
Mosque, Gurwara

OUTDOOR

Looking after our environment
Planting and growing

PSHE

Living in the wider world
Rights and responsibilities
Our environment