This policy is reviewed annually to ensure compliance with current regulations

Purpose of the policy

This policy details how Chulmleigh Community College deals with an emergency evacuation of the exam room(s) by defining staff roles and responsibilities and confirming the emergency evacuation procedure.

When is an emergency evacuation required?

An emergency evacuation is required where it is unsafe for candidates to remain in the exam room. This might include a fire in the exam room, the fire alarm sounding to warn of fire, bomb alert or other serious threat.

In exceptional situations, where candidates might be severely disadvantaged or distressed by remaining in the exam room, the emergency evacuation procedure may also need to be followed. This might include situations where there is severe disruption in the exam room, serious illness of a candidate or invigilator or similarly serious incidents.

Emergency Evacuation Procedure

Invigilators are trained in this procedure and understand the actions they must take in the event of a fire alarm or other emergency that leads to an evacuation of the exam room.

Emergency Evacuation Procedure for Examinations

The invigilator must take the following action in an emergency such as a fire alarm or a bomb alert:

- Stop the candidates from writing
- Collect the attendance register (in order to ensure all candidates are present) and the 2 way radio
- Evacuate the examination room in line with the instructions given by the appropriate authority
- Advise candidates to leave all the question papers and scripts in the examination room
- Advise candidates to leave the exam room in silence
- Advise candidates to make their way to the “Evacuation Meeting Point C “, in the Sports Hall car park
- Silence must be maintained
- Switch on 2 way radio to maintain communication with Exams Officer and Head of Centre

- Make sure that the candidates are supervised as closely as possible while they are out of the examination room to make sure there is no discussion about the examination
- Await instruction from the Exams Officer and Head of Centre

- Make a note of the time of the interruption and how long it lasted
- Allow the candidates the full working time set for the examination
- If there are only a few candidates, consider the possibility of taking the candidates (with question papers and scripts) to another place to finish the examination
- Make a full report of the incident and of the action taken, and send to the relevant awarding body
- When/if allowed to return to the exam room, allow candidates time to settle down, reminding them they are still under exam conditions
- Restart the exam and allow candidates the remaining time set for the exam
- Make relevant changes to the displayed finish time
- Record as much detail as you can on the exam room incident log and ensure the exams officer is fully briefed at the end of the exam to enable a full report to be sent to the awarding body
