

Year 7 HT6			Name:			Date: June 2024			Score:
Reading Fiction			Name of Scheme: The Breadwinner			Task title: Explore how the theme of Resistance is presented in The Breadwinner, using PEARLS paragraphs.
Key 1: understand explicit and implicit meaning Key 2: Use evidence accurately					Key 3: Explore writer’s methods				Key 5
Detailed/ Perceptive	A and B	<input type="checkbox"/> Quotations are analysed.  <input type="checkbox"/> Inferences can be made about language.			Detailed/ Perceptive	A and B	<input type="checkbox"/> Identifies a wide variety of language and possibly structure devices in quotations successfully.  <input type="checkbox"/> Explores the importance of keyword choices in quotations and their different meanings.			Detailed/ Perceptive	A and B	<input type="checkbox"/> Historical, social and cultural information about a text are embedded into explanations.
Clear/ Relevant	C	<input type="checkbox"/> Inferences can be made about language.  <input type="checkbox"/> Beginning to use PEA. Can write in PEARLS/PEARS with support.			Clear/ relevant	C	<input type="checkbox"/> Identifies language (and/or structure) devices in quotations successfully.  <input type="checkbox"/> Explains how the writer uses language (and/or structural features) to achieve an effect.			Clear/ relevant	C	<input type="checkbox"/> Explains how historical, social or cultural information applies to a text.
Some understanding	D and E	<input type="checkbox"/> Explanation on how the evidence supports the ideas.			Some understanding	D and E	<input type="checkbox"/> Identifies some features of language successfully.			Some understanding	D and E	<input type="checkbox"/> Shows some understanding of the context surrounding the novel.
Praise:
Target:													