12 January 2026

Dear Parents and Carers

First of all – on behalf of everyone at the College I wish you a very happy New Year! I hope you all enjoyed a restful and joyous Christmas break and feel refreshed as we enter 2026.

We returned to college on Tuesday with very difficult travel conditions, resulting in a delayed start for many. The logistics of bus travel provide many challenges for our young people and their families and I thank you for making sure your child could attend school where they were able to safely do so. I am sure we have yet to see the end of challenging weather and we will endeavour to give families timely advice on school opening to inform planning and to keep everyone safe.

A highlight of the Spring Term so far has certainly been our Year 11 Mock Results Day. We have for many years interviewed every single Year 11 as we hand them their results slip to focus minds on the final run-up to the summer exams. As always, we have seen the full range of reactions and emotions from our Year 11 pupils – but overwhelmingly we have seen positivity, a sense of purpose and determination to do even better. There is an honesty and industriousness in our pupils here at Chulmleigh. It has been a privilege to have the time to discuss the exams, their ambitions and worries as we walk the journey with them towards these final GCSE examinations in May and June. I am excited for all they will achieve.

In closing I wanted to once again recognise the work and efforts of our Outdoor Education Team which allowed so many pupils to get out on Dartmoor on Sunday for Ten Tors training. We benefit from the support of so many volunteers and members of staff who give their time so freely - we really could not manage without them. It is great we can give the pupils the opportunity which outdoor pursuits offers – and I am unreliaibly informed that walking in poor weather is character building...

Have a great week.

Mr Payne, Headteacher

Creative Writing Competition HT2 Winners - Cold Tales For Cold Nights!

Last half term's Creative Writing Competition theme was Gothic and I have had plenty of entries to sink my teeth into...

Ebony Baxter takes away a £10 Amazon voucher with her wonderful gothic narrative poem. Runner up Ismay Thompson once again showed her prowess with a darkly atmospheric story true to the genre, and our other runner up, Louie Friggens, wrote a gory horror short story with a macabre ending!

Other notable entries came from Obe Solity, Maisie Bourne, Raf Clatworthy-Edwards and Lilly Wilson, some of whom are regular Creative Writing Club attendees!

After such a horrifying experience, perhaps we hear ourselves cry 'give me some space'! And that is the theme of the HT3 competition!

What an amazing, haunting gothic tale - it completely fits the genre in ideas and in its ominous tone! Well done Ebony!

Mr Garrett, Teacher of English

Doodle Challenge

Another amazing collection of entries from last term's Doodle Challenge, which had the theme of Gothic. Pupils submitted some brilliant artwork in a variety of mediums including drawing, painting, digital and model-making. I have been really impressed with the effort and creativity the pupils have shown! It was tricky to pick just one winner, so this Doodle Challenge winners are Alexis Elder, Izzy Beer and Ben Voaden.

Thank you to all the pupils who submitted artwork for the Doodle Challenge. I am looking forward to seeing more excellent artwork next time!

Alexis has created a fantastic pencil drawing of a gothic inspired character. She has shown great use of tone, attention to detail, and the selective use of colour is very effective. Good work Alexis!

To create these architectural images, Ben Voaden has used the Minecraft game to design and construct a gothic cathedral. Ben has successfully captured features of the gothic style; such as intricate details, sweeping upward height and pointed archway. Well done Ben!

Izzy has produced two drawings, both of which are beautifully creepy! The use of charcoal and black paint capture the gothic theme well and create a sinister tone. I was particularly struck by Izzy's creative use of typography in the statement "There is no beauty without some strangeness". I agree!

The Guardian

Our wildlife series Young Country Diary is looking for articles written by children, about their winter encounters with nature

Chance to get published in The Guardian!

I received a WhatsApp message from my friend and ex-Head of English at Chulmleigh College, Ms Cheetham, over Christmas. She mentioned a Creative Writing competition that our pupils may be interested in. I checked it out and it looks intriguing.

For those of you who remember Ms Cheetham, you won't be surprised that it would have been her who spotted this, since she was always an avid Guardian reader as well as a non-fiction guru! It is touching to know that she is still thinking of literacy opportunities for our pupils even after she's retired!

Come to Creative Writing Club (Tuesday lunchtimes) if you want a tip for how to get started, but here's the process for getting your entry in by the deadline, which is 2nd February:

Step 1 – Go out one day to where there is some nature. It could be your local woods or beach, garden, farm, or simply the nearest park.

Step 2 – Write an article of 200-250 words telling us what you saw and what happened.

Step 3 – Get your folks at home to send the article to us using the form on The Guardian site – they ask that parents or guardians do this for you:
