Dear Parents and Guardians

It was the morning after the night before here at Chulmleigh as we reflected on a hugely popular Open Evening that saw almost 200 young people attend the event with their families. Chulmleigh has been a hugely popular secondary school for many years but we think this was our busiest open evening we can ever remember. Our huge thanks go to all the staff that made this evening such a memorable success and also to the primary schools locally who kindly promoted it so well to their families. We look forward to hearing more about Year 7 admissions in due course. I was asked many times what my advice is for parents who live outside of the Chulmleigh designated area who want a place for their child. We are never sure how many out of area places there are every year but the only advice we can give parents is to make Chulmleigh your first choice preference on the admissions form for Year 7 – second choices will not be allocated. We wish everyone well who has shown an interest in our school and thank them for it.

The term is well and truly underway now and in addition to our Open Evening, we have also been busy with Tempest photography organising individual photos for all pupils in addition to our annual Year 11 photograph. It is sobering to think that Year 11 will have progressed to further education or training this time next year and that whole-year group photo is one of those reminders that Year 11 are on their final straight through secondary school education.

Next week we are looking forward to our countdown to GCSEs information evening with parents. We have some key messages for parents regarding GCSEs and also leaving arrangements. This is always a packed event and we look forward to seeing families next Thursday in Heywood Hall.

In this week of meeting new families and preparing the final arrangements for pupils in Year 11, I am reminded of the continuous cycle in education and the privilege we have sharing the experience of young people and their families through childhood.

Have a good weekend.

Mr Payne, Headteacher

Chulmleigh College Open Events

Thank You for Joining Us at Chulmleigh College!

A huge thank you to all the prospective pupils and families who joined us for our Open Evening. It was a pleasure to welcome so many visitors and share what makes Chulmleigh College such a special place to learn, grow and achieve.

We were delighted to welcome prospective pupils from 46 different primary schools, including many families from outside our catchment area. Your interest in our school and the opportunities we offer is greatly appreciated.

Our sincere thanks also go to our staff and pupils, whose enthusiasm, hard work and warm welcome helped make the evening such a special event. From showcasing our facilities and taking part in interactive activities to sharing their experiences, they did a fantastic job representing our College.

If you were unable to join us for the Open Evening, it's not too late to visit us. We still have places available at our upcoming Open Mornings:

- Tuesday 29 September
- Thursday 1 October 2026
11.15am–1.00pm

The mornings will include a guided tour, the opportunity to see lessons in action, hear from our Senior Leadership Team and discover the wide range of opportunities available to our pupils.

We look forward to welcoming more prospective families to Chulmleigh College.

Book your place today:

House Colours

Year 11 House Colour Ties

We are delighted to celebrate our Year 11 pupils who have been awarded their House Colour ties. Pupils apply for these prestigious ties at the end of Year 10, demonstrating their commitment to making a positive contribution to both the school and the wider community. Alongside this, pupils are expected to have maintained good attendance and demonstrated positive conduct, with limited negative points on Class Charts. The award recognises those who have consistently gone above and beyond to embody the values of our school and their House.

Congratulations to all of our Year 11 House Colour recipients - wear your ties with pride!

Mrs Heeney, Head of Upper School

Wednesdays, 3.45pm to 4.45pm

(Primary pupils from 4.00pm)

Heywood Hall, Chulmleigh College

Open to all:

- Singers
- String, Brass and Woodwind Players who are above Grade 1 standard

'A Moment In Time' Winner!

This year I ran a Writing Challenge creative writing competition over the summer. Our winner, who has won previous competitions also, was Ismay Thompson (year 8). She is quickly becoming one of our most talented creative writers, and this time turns her hand to a short story with a cleverly crafted, thoughtful and somewhat moving twist.

Read it and you'll see what I mean.

The £10 Amazon voucher comes her way for first prize. The HT1 competition is themed 'Monsters' with a deadline of 13th October – keep your entries coming in, folks! All are welcome to enter as always. It would be particularly good to see some entries from Year 10 and 11, since this is such good practice for Language Paper 1, Question 5, worth ¼ of the language GCSE of course. It's always good to kill two monsters with one stone!

My Awakening

This morning was different.

My bones felt stiff, and I felt fragile. I heaved out of bed, and made my way to a mirror hung on the wall. The sight that greeted me was terrifying. My skin was creased, like a crumpled napkin, and deep, misty eyes watched me. My hands, trembling, flew to my face, which seemed to have aged thirty years overnight. With schock, I realised I didn't know where I was.

Perhaps I had been drugged, kidnapped, and my captors had taken me here until they decided what to do with me. That was plausible. All of a sudden I felt very cold, and my knewws were unable to supoprt me. I lay broken, on the floor, staring at the unfamiliar ceiling.

A sharp rap-rap-rap from the door shot out like gunfire, startling me.

I sat up.

"Good morning, Mrs Genn!" a voice said from outside.

A young woman entered, wearing uniform. I screamed, but the sound that came out ws dry and feeble.

"Where am I?" I screeched. "What have you done to me?"

The woman flinched, and stepped back, and curtly announced I had visitors, then left. I collapsed weakly to the floor, already exhausted.

What had happened to me?

Heavy footsteps sounded outside. I readied myself for interrogation, or worse, torture, but instead, in walked my beloved husband, Charles, followed by a brunnette, a vsion in yellow. He seemed younger than I remembered, but something else felt off.

If he had really come to rescue me, why did he seem so unfazed by my condition?

I flung myself at him, at the safety of those familiar eyes.

"Charles," I sobbed.

In the carpark, Hannah and John exchanged worried looks.

"Your Mum seemed worse today."

"I know. She's getting so confused. She's lost all sense of time. At this rate, she might have to be moved to a hospital."

Hannah held her cross, and closed her eyes. A tear ran down John's cheek.

Share Your Memories of Chulmleigh College

As we approach our 90th Anniversary in September 2027, we are gathering memories, stories and photographs from former pupils, staff and friends of the school. We would love to hear from everyone who has been part of Chulmleigh College's story.

Do you remember:

- Favourite teachers or members of staff?
- Lifelong friendships that began at school?
- School trips, productions or sporting events?
- Funny anecdotes and memorable moments?
- Achievements, traditions and special occasions?
- Photographs, documents or memorabilia?

Whether your memories are from the 1940s or the 2020s, every story helps us build a picture of school life through the decades.

Selected contributions may be included in our 90th Anniversary commemorative book.

Please send your memories, photographs and contact details to:

Sewing Club: Be Creative, Have Fun, Learn New Skills

Monday Lunchtimes with Mrs Dinnis
Textile Terrace
Years 7, 8 & 9

Learning to sew is best done by actually sewing!

During these sessions we will be learning how to use a sewing machine: threading, loading and changing a bobbin, how to change a needle, reverse stitch, exploring the different stitches available and their uses.

We will work through various projects building skills and confidence.

You will make and take home things like, bookmarks, a personalised banner, a bag, a pencil case, an apron
